

- Notice. registration books shall be open fifteen days; the chief of police shall at once post a notice at the postoffice door of his appointment, or advertise same in the newspapers published in the town, and shall designate the place where he will keep the registration books, and the time after which the books will be closed, and when and for what purpose the election will be held.
- Books open for inspection. SEC. 10. That within twenty-four hours after the close of the registration for each election, the registration books shall be deposited in the office of the mayor of the town, and be opened for the inspection of the citizens.
- Challenge. SEC. 11. It shall be lawful to challenge the right of any person to vote, either on the day of election when he offers to vote, or on the day of registration when he offers to register, and if it shall appear to the judges of election, or a majority thereof, or to the registering officer, that such person is disqualified, he shall be excluded from registration, or, if he has been registered, from voting.
- Election of mayor and aldermen. SEC. 12. That on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, the qualified registered voters of the town of Chapel Hill shall elect a mayor and six aldermen. Only qualified voters of said town shall be eligible to be elected mayor or aldermen. The mayor shall serve during a term of two years. The three candidates for aldermen receiving the highest number of votes shall serve for a term of four years; the three candidates for aldermen receiving the next highest number of votes shall serve for a term of two years. Biennially thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified registered voters of the town of Chapel Hill a mayor to serve for two years, and three aldermen to serve for four years. The said three aldermen shall fill the places of the three aldermen whose terms are expired.
- Appointment of inspectors. SEC. 13. That for the purpose of electing said officers, the aldermen, and in cases of failure by the aldermen, the mayor shall, at least twenty days before the election, appoint two inspectors, who shall be qualified voters, and the inspectors shall give ten days notice thereof by public advertisement, and the inspectors before they proceed to act shall be sworn by the mayor or other persons empowered to administer oaths to conduct the election fairly and impartially and according to law, and in case of the absence of any inspector his place shall forthwith be supplied by the mayor, and in his absence or failure to act, by the other members of the election board.
- Judges of the polls. SEC. 14. That on the day of election the registrar and the inspectors shall give due attendance at the time and place, shall